THE importance of purity in Photographic Chemicals must suggest itself to all. Our imports have for the past half century been acknowledged as PRACTICALLY PURE, THOROUGHLY RELIABLE, and of UNIFORM STRENGTH AND CHARACTER. Commercial samples (as met with in Indian bazaars), though perhaps unadulterated in the strict sense of the term, are not always to be depended upon, as they are liable to be contaminated with other matter which will unfavourably affect results when operating.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 13.

THE London telegrams of yesterday report a further shipment of four lakhs of silver to Bombay. Stocks are unchanged, and seeds and wheat seem without any alteration in position. The quantity of wheat afloat for the U. K. was 2,530,000 qrs. Coffee is quoted as before: Mid Plantation 66s., Good Ordinary Native 45s., and Native Mysore 50s. Copper seems to have been again advanced, and the quotations now given are Wallaroo £71 and Braziers £76.

The week's sales of Cotton in Liverpool were 75,000 bales, of which 12,000 bales were Surats; and the total stocks are rather less on the week, being now 986,000 bales. The actual exports were 11,000 bales, and the trade had taken 71,000 bales again in excess of their consumption, notwithstanding the continued loud complaints of unremunerative trade.

In America the week's receipts were 33,000 bales as against 48,000 bales last year. The day's receipts had been 5,000 bales, and prices are quoted spots 12 5-16 and futures 12·67.

The statistical position of the article for the week in the U. K. was as follows compared with last year:—

	1881-82.	1880-81.
Total stock in Liverpool	986,000	974,000
Of which Surats	228,000	49,000
Total stock in London	60,000	45,000
Prices of Mid. Uplands	6 5-8	5 13-16
Do. F. Dholleras	4¼	4 1-16

And the same for America:—

	1881-82.	1880-81.
Total week's receipts	4,333,000	5,417,000
Total receipts to date	33,000	48,000
Total exports to U.K.	1,983,000	2,365,000
Do. to Continent	1,063,000	1,540,000
Total stock at the ports	524,300	566,000

The total visible supply of Cotton of all kinds is now 2,850,000 bales as against 2,999,000 at the same time last year, and of East Indian it is 896,000 bales against 503,000 bales.

The day's sales in Liverpool were 12,000 bales, Surats being reported unchanged and arrivals steady. Good Oomras are quoted spot 5 3-16, Good Broach 6 3-16d.; G. F. Sawginned Dharwar 5¼d.

In London the market was steady, and rates given are Fair Coconada 5d., Good Fair Westerns 4¾, Good Fair Tinnevelly 5¼d. To arrive are quoted Dhollera Good, G. C. May-June shipment, Canal, 5 5-32d.

Manchester is again reported quiet but steady, and quotations unaltered.

There has been a very fair inquiry for Cotton to-day in our local market, and in some instances holders have secured some slight advance on what were the current rates of yesterday. There has been a fair amount of business done in Dholleras, and a little also in Broach and Dharwars.

In the Piece-goods Bazaar we note no change. The rather improved demand from up-country still continues.

In Metals we hear of no further sales from first hands, and from second there is a fair inquiry at current rates.

EXCHANGE.—Saturday being a short day with the Banks, and being also immediately after the departure of the outgoing mail, as a rule not much business is done on it; and to-day has been no exception. We quote rates much as before:—

	Tel. Demand.	3 months'	4 months'
Banks	Is. 8 1-16d.	Is. 8¼d.	Is. 8 9-32d.
	3 months'	6 months'
Credits	Is. 8 13-32d	Is. 8 9-16d.
Documents	Is. 8 7-16d.	Is. 8¼d.
Francs.....	215	217

The Share Market has on the whole been quiet to-day, with only a small business doing. There are few changes in prices, but the tendency is in many cases towards weakness.

For Government Paper also the demand is very languid, and though there has been no pressure to sell, 4 per cents. close weak at Rs. 101⅞ and 4½ per cents. 108¾. The last quotation from Calcutta by wire for 4 per cents. was Rs. 101½.

MONDAY, MAY 15, 1882.

IF free discussion leads to the expression of embarrassingly diverse views upon any subject brought under public notice, it has the compensatory advantage that nothing bearing on the question is likely to remain unsaid afterwards. It is also useful in giving individuals an opportunity of relieving their minds of bilious humours, the liberation of which is much less injurious to the world in general than would be their continued confinement to the possessors. Local self-government is one of these wide and indeterminate topics which, by their very vagueness, afford unlimited pegs on which to hang ill-natured, discordant, and (strictly speaking) altogether inapposite remarks. We have had occasion, several times, to comment on the incoherent criticisms to which our own observations on this matter have been subjected; but as many of the arguments used against us were irrelevant, and our facts generally unimpeached, it was rarely worth while to continue the controversy. Thoughtful men, it is true, on one side and the other have given the world the benefit of their experience on this eminently practical problem. Others have dealt with the question more in a theoretical vein, but the sober-minded of both classes have generally evinced a genuine sincerity in their object. Outside these there hangs a third order, who being ignorant, indolent, or indifferent, decline to think out the question for themselves, finding it, no doubt, more agreeable to criticise (not very intelligently it must be owned) the work, or impugning the motives, of others more industrious than themselves. The Lahore paper occupies an unique position among the prophets. Our contemporary is naturally suspicious of innovation. It has recently given utterance to characteristic views respecting some remarks of Professor Peterson on this question. There is a fine flavour of old port about these views which gives them a relish. "Stagnation of individual political life, indeed!" fumes the Punjab paper in its indignation. "Did you ever! Do the people of India want Bombay professors to come preaching Radical gospel to them?" To be sure they don't. Such heresy may divert "most advanced intelligences on an advanced island," but "we others out in the cold among the people of India"—(poor souls!)—"have many more urgent matters to attend to." Of course they have. When Ayoub Khan is marching his cohorts on Herat; when Abdul Rahman is employing his last moments at Kabul to cut the throats of his friends to prevent them deserting; when the Russians are hammering at the gates of Balkh, Sarakhs, Maimona, and Heaven knows where else, this is no time for the watchful Punjabis to talk mere treason about relieving the oppressive burdens of the Government by decentralising the administration of India.

But, unfortunately, it is not merely with a multitude of counsellors that the responsible authorities will have to deal in settling this important question, and we learn from our Simla correspondent that their decision will be issued in a couple of weeks. They will, if they regard all that is written about the matter, have to contend with the confusing inconsistencies of individual writers, or supposed individual organs of public opinion. A local contemporary has quite lately exhibited a curiously ingenious variety of wisdom in discussing this question. In the first burst of its fervour for the extension of self-government it attacked Sir James Fergusson as a reactionist unworthy to sit in the seat of his more liberal-minded predecessors. It held up for his confusion Sir Ashley Eden and Sir George Couper as being examples of progress and enlightenment, and as a comment upon this we cite the following passage which appeared a few days ago in the Pioneer:—"It is an open secret that the Lieutenant-Governors, or rather the late Lieutenant-Governors, of both provinces, viz., Bengal and the North-West, were in a way equally hostile to the whole scheme" (i.e. self-government). A few weeks ago it stormed at the men (among others ourselves) who suggested that the people of India were not quite fit for unlimited self-government, that caution and prudence were necessary not only in carrying out the work of decentralisation, but in discussing the question with the natives of India. Our contemporary scornfully dismissed the argument that injudicious extension in many cases would be to sacrifice efficient and economical government. That was admitted, but it was nothing to the point. "Whatever system the people evolve for themselves," said the journal referred to, "will be more acceptable to the masses, and therefore more stable and real, than one which is given to them." Any doctrine to the contrary "would never find acceptance amongst millions who are ruled by a few thousands who are strangers to them in habits, language, and thoughts." Then followed some reasonable remarks about the educational influences of free political life, and in another place our contemporary explained that the difficulty in realising the desideratum "chiefly lies in the inability of the bureaucratic mind to conceive any other possible method of administration than that directed by officials under the supervision of other officials." The writer wound up in triumph. "The day has gone by," he exclaimed, "when the English Civil Service could impose its iron will upon every detail of the administration. . . . The axe is laid to the root of Anglo-Indian autocracy." We took exception, at the time, to this species of perfervid rhapsody, but seeing that it was repeated, we should expect our contemporary after so short a space of time to be still something like consistent. On the contrary, we find that it has achieved an astonishing, and not very creditable, volte face. When, for example, Professor Peterson ventured, in his lecture at the Sassoon Institute, to give expression to views quite in harmony with those previously advocated by our contemporary (and which, be it said, we criticised in the same spirit as the first), it turned upon him with a ferocity not to be accounted for by ordinary feelings of public antagonism. Speaking of the state of things for which it panted so impatiently a few weeks before, this journal, which had just been reproaching others for inconsistency, says: "The path, however, will have to be traversed for many a year before this result can be completely obtained, and they are only false prophets who tell the natives otherwise." Among those "false prophets," whose "flattery and advice" the natives were counselled to disregard—"flattery and advice," be it remembered, not nearly so fulsome and extravagant as that given in the columns of the same newspaper a few weeks previously—we were told, in a style happily unusual in an English newspaper, that the most dishonest and the most unworthy was Professor Peterson. It is perhaps not necessary to examine further the utterances of a journal which, being devoid of any individual opinion of its own upon any public question whatsoever, puts its columns to whoever has a fad to ventilate on the one hand, or a malicious purpose to serve on the other.

A contribution to this discussion of a very different stamp is a pamphlet from the pen of a writer signing himself "Sina," and whose ideas we hope to be able to examine more in detail on a future occasion. "Sina" unfolds what may be considered the extreme popular view of the question, and, if we differ somewhat from his conclusions, we readily confess the temperateness and ability with which he has stated his arguments. He would overspread the country with a homogeneous system of Provincial, Local, and District Councils. This, it may be noted, is quite the opposite opinion from that expressed by Sir Ashley Eden, who held that "no single system of local self-government could be administered with success." "Sina" disarms a certain amount of criticism by stating that these councils "would not interfere with executive matters." Executive action, he states, is quite foreign to their object, "their proper duty being to watch and check the actions of executive officers." It might be urged that such bodies would be merely debating societies, and such the writer expects them to be, for he quotes the dictum of Mill that "it is the object of councils to talk." It would appear, indeed, that Mill's idea had taken root inconveniently deep in the popular mind, but we must remind "Sina" that although it is beneficial to have every subject "thoroughly discussed, debated, and threshed out," it is hardly worth while for a Government to organise debating clubs for the people and call it self-government. "Sina" believes such councils would "watch and check the actions of executive officers," and by subjecting the public conduct of officials to wholesome criticism "it would have an excellent moral effect" upon executive officers. Then, again, it would be their duty "to bring to light cases of extortion," to "discuss the pressure of the Land Tax, the License Tax, or any Municipal Tax." Their financial control "would extend to the discussion of the whole fund budget, its income and expenditure, and to a general supervision of the manner in which the works are carried out. New roads, or wells, or public buildings would be appropriately suggested by the council, and to it might be entrusted the visitation of jails, hospitals and dispensaries, asylums and schools." We are afraid that bodies of the character described by "Sina" would simply render government impossible. His comparison of his Councils to English County-Boards does not lead to much, because these boards are not yet beyond the creative mind of Mr. Gladstone's Government. All boards existing in England, or anywhere else, possess executive functions, and without them there would be no raison d'être for their existence. Whatever instalment of local self-government Lord Ripon decides to concede must be tangible as far as it goes, for self-government such as "Sina" describes would confer nothing upon the people, and, as we said before, render government by officials impossible. Although we cannot approve of "Sina's" general scheme, there is much in his pamphlet relating to practical details which might be adopted with advantage.

THAT the Strachey brothers may soon realise the desire of their hearts, and see an extensive narrow-gauge railway system connected with Bombay, is now quite possible. However much sur

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA AND EGYPT.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, MAY 14.

Notwithstanding a contemporary's assertion that the Indian Government have a plan of campaign in Egypt ready, the fact is that up to this moment no such preparations exist as would enable troops from India to reach Suez before five or six weeks after the order for mobilisation. The opinion here is that permanent preparations should exist in order that troops might be embarked from Bombay at two or three days' notice. Nothing exists beyond mere plans of some old date in the Intelligence Department.

REGARDING Sir Salar Jung's journey to Simla, a correspondent informs us that His Excellency will leave Hyderabad on Monday (to-day), arriving in Bombay on Tuesday by the Madras mail-train. He will leave for Ahmedabad the same night, proceeding vid the Rajputana line to Ajmere, thence to Umballa and Simla, which he is expected to reach on Sunday, or Monday next. His Excellency will be accompanied by his Persian Private Secretary and a small suite. It is understood that he will remain at Simla for ten or fifteen days, and that some important questions relative to the Hyderabad State will be discussed during his visit. The administration of affairs at Hyderabad will be intrusted to the Peshkar Rajah Narainder Parshod during the Regent's absence.

IT is stated that Bapoojee Dhunjeebhoy Banajee, who was sentenced at the last Criminal Sessions to three years' rigorous imprisonment for forgery, has made startling disclosures, which receive corroboration from independent information obtained by the police, and which will lead to the arrest of certain persons.

A NEW political association has been formed in Japan. An account of the society and its objects is given in the North China Herald, as follows :—1.—To uphold the dignity and prosperity of the Imperial House and the welfare of the Japanese people. 2.—To extend the power of the Empire by the development of the national resources. 3.—To encourage local government and check the inclination towards centralisation. 4.—To regulate the right to vote at elections in proportion to the progress of the people. 5.—To restrain participation in foreign intercourse, and devote as much attention as possible to domestic affairs. 6.—To abolish the irredeemable paper currency.

WE hear that Messrs. Greaves, Cotton and Co., merchants of Bombay, have been commissioned to order out machinery from England for a mill which is to be started in Baroda.

RAO BAHADOOR GUNPUTRAO BHASKER assumed charge on Friday last of the office of Third Judge of the Bombay Small Causes Court in place of Mr. Warden. The same day Mr. Hormusjee Dadabhoy, a pleader, took his seat on the bench as acting fourth judge of the court in place of Mr. Gunputrao.

A post mortem examination showed, it appears, that Captain Fulford's wound was far more serious than the doctors had imagined. The shot had gone through the lungs, and injured an artery ; so that his case was hopeless from the beginning.

IN another column we publish the orders relating to the distribution of the troopers and sepoys of the Bengal regiments about to be broken up. The orders affecting the Bombay and Madras armies have not yet been issued.

THE announcement of movements to be made by regiments in India in the ordinary course of relief this year is said to have been delayed by considerations having arisen which induced the authorities to alter the destinations of the 1st Battalion York and Lancaster Regiment (late 65th) and the 2nd Battalion Norfolk Regiment (late 9th). The former is now, a contemporary hears, to go to Aden and the latter to Morar.

IT has been decided that the arrears of pay due to Mahomed Hyat Khan, C.S.I., for the period during which he was under suspension, shall be given to him in full.

COLONEL F. BRINE, R. E., the Channel Balloonist, who returned to Indian duty the other day, is, the Pioneer says, to be again employed in the Public Works Department.

THE Lahore paper says the Governor-General-in-Council has expressed his satisfaction at the result finally attained in the expedition against the Mahsud Waziris, and Major C. E. Macaulay's services in connection with the above have been duly recognised.

THE Rev. J. Cole, Principal of the Lawrence Military Asylum at Sanawar, has just issued some useful Notes on Hygiene, "with hints on self-discipline for young soldiers in India," a book which ought to have a place in every soldiers' library in the country.

THE Chief of the Burmese Embassy is a much more civilised person than might be expected to come abroad as a representative of King Thebaw. He speaks English and French, and has a considerable infusion of European culture. He was educated from 18 to 22 at the Doveton College, Calcutta, and Paris ; he has been on missions at various courts in Europe.

The Pioneer :—"In spite of the many considerations which might render it desirable, we are given to understand that there is no intention on the part of the British Government at present to organise an expedition from this country to Egypt. The intervention which is inevitable will probably take the shape of another naval demonstration."

A Gazette of India Extraordinary issued at Simla on the 8th instant states :—"A vacancy having occurred in the office of an Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor-General of India by the appointment of the Hon'ble Augustus Rivers Thompson, C.S.I., C.I.E., to the office of Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, Her Majesty the Queen, Empress of India, has been graciously pleased to appoint Sir Steuart Colvin Bayley, K.C.S.I., C.I.E., of the Bengal Civil Service, to be an Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor-General of India. Sir Steuart Bayley has on the afternoon of this day, under the usual salute, taken his seat as an Ordinary Member of the Governor-General's Council."

THE following is the official summary of the North-West Provinces crop and weather reports for the week ended on the 10th inst :—Weather stormy. Winds easterly. Heavy rain fell in Gorakhpur, and slight rain in eight other districts. Hail fell in Partabghur and Allahabad, causing damage to melons and fruit trees. Prices are rising in Allahabad, Cawnpore, and Farukhabad ; elsewhere stationary. Cholera is increasing in Allahabad, but decreasing in Partabgarh and Gorakhpur. There is slight small-pox in five districts. Cattle-disease continues in Kumaun, Jhansi, Meerut, and Bareilly.

THE Mahomedan National Association of Calcutta has come to the conclusion that there should be an Executive Council in Bengal ; that a Provincial Council should be instituted, based on representative principles, to assist in the government of the Province ; and that the rules for the pleadership and attorney's examinations in Calcutta should be relaxed in favour of all Mahomedans for the next five years. The Association is about to memorialise the Secretary of State on each of the two former points, and the Chief Justice of Bengal on the third.

Apropos of the Madras widows' petition to the Queen, the Bombay Guardian remarks :—Her Majesty can do nothing, we suppose ; but the ventilation of this crying evil will answer some purpose. The great majority of Hindus look upon the Sankeracharya as the custodian of Hinduism. Meanwhile, there is one door out of the difficulty : let the system that is thus guilty of trampling on the rights of the weak and the helpless be forsaken for one that embodies the principle of clemency and justice.

WITH reference to the real or alleged grievance of the Punjab Civilians who have been transferred to the Bombay Presidency, a correspondent, "B. C. S.," writes to the Civil and Military Gazette :—"I notice that certain junior officers of the Punjab Commission are being sent to Bombay, and that one at least is objecting. I think the move is a right one, but that it is not being properly managed. The very junior officers of the Commission are just as well paid as the officers anywhere else ; they have not yet tasted the pleasure of hope deferred that maketh the heart sick—that they will taste before they are five years older. They do not appreciate the blessing of being transferred from a Province where the Military Civilians are to us as the Old Man of the Sea was to Sinbad. Some of the Civilians, a little senior, would probably jump at a transfer to Bombay. I would for one. More than three years ago my contemporaries in Bombay were drawing from about Rs. 1,150 to Rs. 1,350 a month. That was, I say, more than three years ago. It is better to live in Bombay than starve in the Punjab. It may be objected that a senior officer cannot be transferred. I think I remember our importing an Accountant-General not many years ago, when the Punjab Civilians wanted every appointment they could get. It may have been because there was no one in the Punjab Commission fit to be Accountant-General. If so the sooner some of us are removed to make way for more able men the better. . . . . If I have sent in my name for transfer to Bombay if men are wanted there. . . . It may be hard for some of us to leave a Province which we have learned to like, in order to go to a new place where we shall have to study new languages, customs, and people. But every year the struggle with life seems harder. Pay does not increase, but the cost of the necessaries of life increase daily. Our rupees have become few and depreciated, but fowls, gram, house-rent, &c., are four times what they were 20 years ago. Things may be better in Bombay. They cannot be worse."

THAT enterprising lady traveller and pianiste, Mdlle. Duboin, who went all over India a few years ago, even making her way to Joypore at the time of the Prince of Wales's visit, was lately in Japan, and a Yokohama paper states that she purposed giving a few concerts there "previous to her return to Shanghai, whence she will return, vid Siberia, to Russia."

ACTING apparently on the cynical Italian proverb that we must search for the criminal amongst those who benefit by the crime, the Indian Spectator hits upon an ingenious theory as to the assassins of the Irish Secretaries. "Whatever is done in favour of, and to benefit, the tenants must be equally offensive and unwelcome to the landlords. The creation of a peasant proprietary, remission of arrears of rent, and other items which are to compose the savoury dish which the Conservative chief cook is preparing, are gall and wormwood to the landlords. In fact, it must necessarily occur that if the peasants are elated, the landholders must be depressed, and enraged probably to an extent that would give birth to the most desperate schemes of revenge. Government had just released six hundred 'suspects' who were, in fact, six hundred of the 'No-rent party.' Is it probable after this act of magnanimity they would turn round and assassinate the very man to whom they owed this boon ? Unfortunately there are two desperate parties to deal with, the landholders and the tenants, and if Government ever initiate a policy calculated to satisfy the latter, they must prepare themselves for incurring the desperate and implacable animosity of the former, who, being men of education and resource and having money to back them, will be proportionately formidable and dangerous."

The Bombay Guardian :—A good many people in Bombay commit suicide in the course of a year ; perhaps as many as there are days in the year ; possibly many more than we know of do it, the custom of immediate disposal of the body favouring the concealment. Occasionally some are not successful in their attempt to put themselves out of existence, and are apprehended by the police, and condemned to imprisonment by the magistrate. This week a woman has been sentenced to a month's simple imprisonment for such an attempt. It does not appear to us that imprisonment is likely to make this world appear more attractive to the poor woman. We cannot deny that it is right to treat suicide as a crime ; but if a person has made up his mind to part with life, the penalty for not succeeding would only have the effect of making him more careful to do the thing perfectly.

The Straits Times has the following about a Russian traveller :—The distinguished Russian traveller and savant, Baron N. de Miklouho Maclay, whose researches in the Malay Peninsula some years ago, as well as his travels in New Guinea, have won him a local celebrity, arrived here (Singapore) about a month ago from Australia by the Russian cruiscr Vestnik, on his way home to Russia. Failing to meet here a homeward-bound Russian man-of-war, the Baron intended to have gone to Hongkong by the Duke of Edinburgh in the hope of meeting one there ; but the opportune arrival of the cruiser Asia has changed his plans, and he will now proceed home to Russia by this vessel. The Baron is thus revisiting home after about 12 years of travel in strange lands, during which he has made a large and rare collection, part of which, left here in 1878, he is sending to Australia, to await his return there in about a year, when he will prepare his numerous manuscripts for publication.

They are introducing assassination into the settlement of political questions in Japan. The Japan Mail of the 8th April states :—"Just as we are going to press news reaches us of an attempt to assassinate Mr. Itagaki, which took place on the 6th instant at Gifu. The telegram reporting the event is meagre. It merely says that the assailant was a Shizoku, and that the affair occurred either at, or after, a friendly meeting. Mr. Itagaki's wounds are reported to be in the face and breast, but of a trifling nature. The would-be assassin was immediately arrested, but his motives remain a matter of conjecture. We are inclined to suspect, however, that the apparently conciliatory disposition recently displayed by the Tosa leader towards the Government may have aroused the indignation of some hot-headed Radical, who thinks that swords and bullets are excellent companions on the way to a constitution."

THE new die for the next issue of gold coinage from the English Mint is now completed and in the possession of the authorities at the Mint. This is only the second die taken during the reign of the Queen. Her Majesty is represented with the imperial crown, and the likeness is that of the Queen of the present day.

A WINDSOR correspondent of a London paper states that on April 17 the Colonel of the 2d Life Guards received an anonymous letter, in which the writer said it was intended to blow up the Spital barracks at Windsor, where the 2d Life Guards are stationed. Very little importance was attached to the communication by the authorities, but it was deemed advisable, in view of any such attempt, to double the sentries at night, and strengthen the guard.

LORD ROWTON and his co-trustees under Lord Beaconsfield's will are in the midst of some unpleasant disputes, a London correspondent of the Pioneer says, respecting the forthcoming publication of Lord Beaconsfield's biography. "From one point of view the circumstance may be regarded as a fortunate one, because it will probably induce Lord Rowton to look about for an abler editor than himself to undertake the bringing out of the book. The Conservative party, who are not very strong in literary talent just now, are especially weak in biographers. Lord Lytton is beyond question the ablest man they possess in this particular field, but at the present moment he is engaged on a life of his father. If when this is completed he will undertake the life of Lord Beaconsfield, we may count upon the work being well done."

AT an inquest held on April 19 in the Tower of London, the jury were about to be empanelled, when a Mr. Cohen, a Levite, objected to be sworn, on the ground that his religion forbade him to look upon a dead body on that day. The coroner said he was sorry he could not help him, but the forms of his religion did not preclude him from serving on a jury, and he would therefore have to attend. Mr. Cohen replied that all he could say was that the sin he was about to commit would be on the head of the coroner. The coroner rejoined that he would put up with that. Mr. Cohen added that the sin the coroner would have to answer for would be very great. He was, however, retained on the jury, and was made foreman.

THE FREIGHT CONFERENCE.

A GENERAL meeting of members of the Native Piece-goods Merchants' Association was held at the New Cloth Market on Saturday to consider the advisability of entering into a new contract, on the expiration of the old one, for ordering out their goods by a particular line of steamers, an arrangement which has worked very satisfactorily during the last nine months. In September, 1881, a contract for one year was entered into with Sir Charles Forbes and Co. of Bombay, by which the native merchants bound themselves to order out their goods by the Inch Line steamers at 20s. per ton. The contract expires at the end of August next. At the meeting held on Saturday, while some merchants were in favour of renewing the contract with the Inch Line, others were for entering into a fresh contract with Messrs. W. and A. Graham and Co., as agents of the Anchor Line. It was finally resolved by a majority of votes that a contract for sixteen months (namely, from September, 1882, to December, 1883) be entered into with the Anchor Line for bringing out Manchester goods on account of native merchants in general at 19s. per ton from London and at 17s. 6d. per ton from Glasgow.

COURT-MARTIAL ON AN OFFICER.

AT a general court-martial assembled at Rawal Pindi, on the 24th April, Lieutenant Samuel Spence Parkyn, of the 1st Battalion Royal Irish Regiment, was arraigned on the following charge : That, at the Fort Rawal Pindi, on the 11th of March, when in attendance at the quarters of Major Thomas Charge Wray, of the same battalion, by order of his Commanding Officer, he appeared before his Commanding Officer, drunk. The court found that Lieut. Parkyn was not guilty of the charge.

THE THEFT AT THE CASH BAZAAR.

AT the Fort Police Court, on Saturday, Charles Wilson, a salesman in the employ of Messrs. Meiffre, Neveu and Company, was charged, before Mr. Webb, with stealing a pair of boots from the Cash Bazaar, as well as with having in his possession ladies' and gentlemen's wearing apparel and other goods of the collective value of Rs. 119-8-6, the property of the company. The accused was remanded to jail, pending further inquiries by the police.

CHARGE OF CULPABLE HOMICIDE.

THE case in which Jao DeMello stood charged with culpable homicide not amounting to murder by causing the death of his wife, Mankin, was disposed of on Saturday last, at the Girgaum Police Court, before Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee.

Mr. Wilkin, of Messrs. Skipsey and Wilkin, defended the prisoner.

The evidence of Domingo DeMello, the brother-in-law, his wife, and the mother-in-law of the deceased, and of Dr. Sidney Smith, the Coroner's Surgeon, was taken. Before the coroner Domingo DeMelo stated that the prisoner in awaking his wife (the deceased) had given her a kick. Before the magistrate, however, he said that he did not see the prisoner kick the deceased ; he only touched her with his foot. Domingo DeMello's wife stated that she could see nothing, owing to a purdah intervening between herself and the deceased. The evidence of all the witnesses showed that the deceased had suffered from pain since she gave birth to a child about seven months ago, and that the prisoner had always treated her kindly. Dr. Sidney Smith's evidence went to show that the cause of death was peritonitis. Peritonitis might be caused by a kick on the abdomen, but Dr. Smith added that the disease would also occur without any external violence being inflicted. Peritonitis, he said, was not an infrequent complaint ; it might occur from exposure to cold ; it also sometimes occurred after child-birth.

At the conclusion of the evidence Mr. Wilkin said that he did not think any observations were called for from him.

The magistrate was of opinion that there was no evidence before him to support the charge.

The prisoner was discharged.

THE PARSEE BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.—It may be interesting to the Parsees to hear that Goolbai, the daughter of Mr. Cowasjee Cursetjee Dubash, who has filed a suit in the High Court against Pherozshaw Cowasjee Major for breach of promise of marriage, was married yesterday to another young man, at the Aibless Baugh.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday last at the Morgue, Cammateepoora, on the body of Abdool Hoosain Alibhoy, aged fifteen years, who died from the effects of injuries he sustained by a fall from a staging, on the 8th instant, while painting the ceiling of a mill at Mazagon. A verdict of accidental death was recorded.

GAIETY THEATRE.—From an advertisement in another column it will be seen that the Parsee Victoria Theatrical Company perform this evening and two others during the week at this place of amusement. On Saturday night they represented a sensational operatic piece entitled "Fisanai Ajaib" and a farce, which was full of local hits. The house was full in all parts, the boxes being occupied by native families. The brother and suite of the chief of Wudwan were present.

THE LEOPOLD SPINNING, BLEACHING, AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders of the company was held on Saturday last at its registered office, 1, Forbes-street, Mr. J. Greaves presiding. The business before the meeting was to pass a special resolution making alterations in the articles of association regarding fees for the transfer of shares. A resolution to that effect was duly passed ; and the proceedings terminated with a vote of thanks to the chairman. Mr. Greaves mentioned for the information of the shareholders that the machinery for the mill was out ; that the walls were completed ; that the roof was on in some portions of the building ; and that by the end of August next there was a fair chance of working the mill.

THE SOUTHERN MAHRATTA RAILWAY COMPANY.—The Southern Mahratta Railway Company, Limited, with a capital of three millions sterling, was just about being launched when the mail of the 21st ultimo left London. The company had obtained pretty good terms from the Secretary of State : a guarantee of 4 per cent. for the first 5 years and of 3½ per cent. for the next 45 : the company taking one-fourth of the net profits, and agreeing to meet any possible excess of expenditure over revenue by deductions from the guaranteed interest : the State to accept surrender of the line at any time on receiving one year's notice and to be entitled to take it over at par value at the end of ninety-nine years. In point of fact it is a Government line constructed on borrowed capital and leased to a company, in furtherance of General Strachey's pet theory of the right way to get Indian railways made and worked. The guarantee appears a very liberal one from a Government that has lately protested against the guarantee system ; but the truth is that the prospects of the South Mahratta line—which indeed mainly owes its existence to a treaty obligation with Portugal—are dismal in the extreme, and nothing short of a good guarantee would suffice to float it. Armed with that, the company secured about two millions of its capital before the prospectus was published. Sir Douglas Forsyth and General Sir Frederick Pollock are among the Directors—a weak board on the whole, with General J. S. Trevor, our late Director of State Railways, one of its redeeming features.—Pioneer.

MR. PETERSON'S LECTURE ON THE VEDA.—In a recent issue we gave the peroration of a lecture by Mr. Peterson, a Bombay Professor of Sanscrit, on the Rig-Veda. It may seem a far cry from these magnificent hymns of an antique time to the more familiar topic of local self-government and the spread of the Radical gospel. But, as Messrs. Goldwin Smith, and Thorold Rogers have shown us, the Professor, when he takes to politics, is not to be denied, and any text will serve to provoke his noble rage. Mr. Peterson complains bitterly of the utter deadness of Indian political life. He apparently looks hopefully forward to a Stum ueid Drang period of public meetings, when popular virtue will be roused by eloquent agitation, till the "stagnation of individual political life" is broken up and the now divided races of the Empire become "a united and self-governing people." It is natural enough that a Bombay Professor, in daily contact with the most advanced intelligences of an advanced island, should see in the proposals of the Supreme Government a chance for the spread of liberal ideas and a fair promise of political vitality. But we others, out in the cold among the people of India, dare not be so sanguine. In this province, also, we are not absolutely certain that the Educational Professor is a safe or reliable popular leader, and are firmly persuaded that both he and the rest of us have many urgent matters to attend to before we may indulge in the pleasing excitement of preaching radical sermons on Sanscrit texts.—Civil and Military Gazette.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—The Bombay Catholic Examiner of Saturday last writes :—Chinese Catholics are very much of a rarity in Bombay, and much more so those of the higher class. So, on Sunday morning last, towards ten o'clock, there was considerable flutter at the Fort Chapel, when a venerable person in full Chinese attire, all in white, with his attendant all in blue silk, presented himself as a visitor. But the first astonishment quickly subsided, when the name on the card showed that the visitor was an Italian and a Catholic Bishop, Monsignore Simeone Volonteri, well-known as a veteran Chinese Missionary of twenty-five years' standing, originally from the Seminary of Milan and now Vicar Apostolic of Ho-nan, ever since July, 1873. Finally, when after the lapse of a few minutes the newly arrived Bishop was seen at the altar, celebrating Mass entirely in the usual form, and his attendant assisting just as one of our Catholics would, though his dress was perfectly Chinese, then all astonishment was quite removed, and all, even the youngest, felt delighted at having before them a living attestation of the truth, they had always learnt in the Catechism, that their Church is truly the Catholic Church, as being the Church of all times and of all nations. Bishop Volonteri is the guest of Bishop Meurin ; while that mutual delight, may more easily be imagined than expressed. The missionary who has been for so many years in China, always in communication with the natives, even during the ten years when his head-quarters were at Hongkong, and much more during the twelve following years, when he lived and laboured in the most central province of the Empire, is a living book of information upon matters most interesting to the welfare of India,—to every one who has at the welfare of souls at heart. The Vicariate of Ho-nan was first established in 1844, under the Lazarists, and these zealous missionaries remained there till the year 1880, when Mgr. Baldus, the Bishop, was transferred to the Vicariate of Kiang-Si. For five years there was no Vicar-Apostolic of Ho-nan, till in 1869 the mission was committed to the charge of the Society of the Foreign Missions of Milan, when the Rev. Simeon Volunteri was directed to proceed thither as Pro-vicar Apostolic. It was a ten days' journey right into the heart of the empire, and when the brave missionary and his four companions from Italy arrived there, they found themselves almost alone the Pastors of nearly 3,000 souls. They were soon joined by a few more priests of the congregation. In 1873 Mgr. Volonteri was named Bishop Vicar Apostolic and was consecrated the following year. He is now journeying to Rome, to give an account of his Mission to the successor of St. Peter, and to report to him that his flock now numbers close upon 6,000, and that further aid is required of missionaries. Is not the Church of Christ here upon earth now, just as it was nineteen centuries ago, under the Pope as its head, and the Bishops as its chief Pastors ? His Lordship leaves on Monday by the Rubattino s.s. Giava.

PRESENTATION OF THE BRONZE STARS TO THE 72ND HIGHLANDERS.

ON Saturday last, the 6th instant, at 6 a. m., General Cureton, C.B., Commanding the Oudh Division, presented Bronze Stars to 60 men who served in the 72nd Regiment on the march from Kabul to Kandahar, and most of whom volunteered to the 2nd Battalion Seaforth Highlanders on the departure of the 1st Battalion to Aden. Two Volunteers from the 92nd Gordon Highlanders were also similarly decorated on the occasion.

The Regiment was drawn up so as to form three sides of a square, and for the first time the officers and men appeared in khaki. The men to be decorated were in two rows immediately fronting General Cureton as he took up his position near the centre of the square, and the stars having been handed to him by one of the Staff, the General distributed them, one by one, as each of the gallant fellows advanced to the front to receive his well-merited guerdon.

Previous to the presentation of the Crosses, General Cureton addressed the regiment as follows :—

"2nd Battalion Seaforth Highlanders,—Your Colonel has asked me to distribute in presence of you all the Crosses gained by 60 men now present who served in Afghanistan in your 1st Battalion, the late 72nd Highlanders—but most of whom have since volunteered to this battalion—for service under General Roberts, on the march from Kabul to Kandahar. I am much obliged to Colonel Warren for the honour he has done me in asking me to distribute these Crosses. It is always a source of the greatest pleasure to me to be the means of conveying decorations granted by the Queen to those of her soldiers upon whom they have been bestowed. It is unnecessary for me to dilate on the good service done by the 72nd Highlanders in Afghanistan—the long and trying march of his column, and the gallant fight near Kandahar have not only been ably told by General Roberts himself, but they have been described and praised not only by the Press of our own country, but by the Press of every nation in Europe. The Germans allude to it as the best conducted action fought by the British since Waterloo. However this may be, it was a grand march ending in a most successful action. The 72nd lost in this fight their gallant Colonel and many a good soldier, and received unqualified praise for their conduct in this episode of the war, as they had done for their conduct in the whole campaign ; they were second to none. Wherever the two distinguished battalions, now called the Seaforth Highlanders, have been called upon to serve, they have proved themselves as gallant in the field as they have invariably been steady and well disciplined in quarters. This is not the first time I have served with the 72nd. About 24 years ago I was in Camp with them under Lord Clyde, not very far from this ; and about this season we were constantly engaged with the mutineers and the heat was excessive, but under all trials the 72nd were then, as they have always been, renowned for their gallant and soldier-like qualities.

Addressing the men about to be decorated the General said :—"I congratulate you all most sincerely on receiving these Crosses granted by Her Majesty, and I envy you for having been through the late campaign with General Sir F. Roberts."—Lucknow Express.

Such grants will be made in accordance with the "Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876," and with the rules sanctioned thereunder by the Governor-General of India in Council. Copies of the Act and rules can be obtained by intending planters on application to the Deputy Commissioner of Tavoy, the Commissioner of Tenasserim at Moulmein, or the Secretariat, Rangoon.

III.—In addition to the concessions and conditions laid down in the Act and rules, the following special concessions will be made to persons taking up land for plantations of coffee, tea, cinchona, or spices, in Tavoy, namely,—

(1) A grantee must bring under cultivation one-third of his grant within 12 years from the date of his obtaining the grant. If, after the expiration of 12 years, any surplus uncultivated land, in excess of two acres of waste for each acre of cultivated land, shall remain on the grant, such surplus waste shall then revert to Government; and the grantee shall have no further claim or right in the surplus which has so reverted.
(2) A grantee will not be liable to pay any land revenue or any price for the land of his grant until the end of the tenth year after he enters on possession, provided that he takes bona fide steps to cultivate a reasonable proportion of the grant with coffee, tea, cinchona, or spices. In the event of any grantee desiring a more precise definition of a "reasonable proportion," the Chief Commissioner may decide before hand in each case what proportion of the grant ought to be thus cultivated in each year.
(3) After the end of the tenth year the grantee will be liable to pay land revenue at the rate of Rs. 1-0 per acre and cesses at the rate of two annas per acre on one-third of his grant up to the year 1900 A.D.; after the expiration of such year he will be liable to pay for one-third of his grant the same revenue rate as is paid for garden lands in the nearest revenue circle where a garden rate obtains.
(4) A grantee will not be called upon to pay anything for timber, bamboos, or grass which he may cut upon his grant, provided he takes bona fide steps as aforesaid to cultivate coffee, tea, cinchona, or spices.

IV.—The only payment which a grantee will have to make on receiving his grant will be eight annas an acre for the cost of survey and demarcation. In consideration of such payment the Deputy Commissioner will cause a survey to be made of the grant, will furnish the grantee with a copy of such survey, and will cause boundary marks to be erected at suitable points in the outer boundary of the grant.

V.—The wishes of applicants will be met, as far as possible, in regard to the situation and shape of their grants. But ordinarily—

(a) no grant will be given where the Forest Department intend to make a forest reserve;
(b) no grant will be given on such a place as will unduly circumscribe the extension of cultivation of the grazing-grounds of any neighbouring village or hamlet;
(c) grants facing a road or navigable stream will have to be of a depth double the length facing such road or navigable stream;
(d) small strips will be reserved lead-ng to landing places for the benefit of neighbouring villages and grantees.

VI. The Government is now spending much larger sums than heretofore on roads in the Tavoy district. If planters settle in the district, further funds will be allotted for roads from their neighbourhood to the steamer station at either Tavoy or Thayetchoung.

VII.—In order to encourage pioneers in the coffee and cinchona enterprise in Tavoy, the Government will pay to the first four grantees who begin bona fide planting operations Rs. 15 per head for every Indian or Chinese coolie, male or female, over 16 years of age, who may be settled and housed on their plantations before the 1st March 1885.

VIII.—In any case of doubt regarding the bona fide character of operations for the purposes of concessions III and VII, the Deputy Commissioner will decide, and his decision will be subject to appeal to the Commissioner of Tenasserim, whose decision will be final.

IX.—All minerals and metals under and within the lands granted under these rules are reserved by Government, together with the right to enter upon and resume such portion of land as may be necessary for examining or working mines upon payment of just compensation to the grantee for loss of, or injury done to, the surface.

CARLTON WHISKEY, ELEVEN YEARS OLD.

Same as supplied to the Carlton and other London Club Houses.

THESE GRAND OLD WHISKIES are shipped only by RICHARD MATHEWS AND COMPANY, of London and Inverness, who are sole possessors of the Brand "CARLTON." They are distilled from the finest Highland Malt only, are in every respect equal to the finest Brandy, and guaranteed to be entirely free from Fusel Oil or other noxious impurities.

The following Testimonial has been received from the Secretary of the "CARLTON" CLUB.

CARLTON CLUB, 1875,
December 20.

MESSRS. R. MATHEWS & COMPY.

GENTLEMEN,—In reply to your inquiry as to whether the Whiskey you are supplying to this Club is approved by the Members, the best answer I can give is that the consumption of this spirit in the Club has GREATLY INCREASED since it has been supplied by your Firm. There can be no doubt whatever about the Whiskey being MOST EXCELLENT.

It is old and soft, and I may safely say that it is much approved by the Members.

CAUTION.—It has come to the knowledge of the shippers of the "CARLTON" WHISKIES that the empty bottles have been dishonestly refilled with the poisonous trash very often sold in India under the name of Whiskey, this is therefore to caution consumers to carefully examine the Capsules and Corks to see they have not been tampered with; also that the Corks, Capsules, and Labels are branded with Trade Mark.
